A ONE-PAGE UPDATE FOR PACK 258 FAMILIES

NOVEMBER 2026

CUBMASTER'S CORNER

As we head into November, I'm grateful for our Pack 258 families and volunteers. This month brings opportunities to honor our Veterans, enjoy Rutgers Scout Day, learn with New Jersey Natural Gas, and support our Pack through the holiday wreath fundraiser. Thank you for helping make Scouting meaningful for our Scouts!

— Dan Lahey, Cubmaster

THIS MONTH'S SPOTLIGHT

NOVEMBER PACK MEETING

Our November Pack Meeting will feature Veterans recognition, a Scout-friendly voting activity, and a hands-on New Jersey Natural Gas energy-efficiency demonstration. Scouts will explore how insulation helps protect a mini house and keep ice from melting.

LEARNING TODAY. LEADING TOMORROW.

ADVANCEMENT OPPORTUNITY

Liberty in Action / Washington Crossing

A unique history and citizenship opportunity is coming Dec. 13 at the Washington Crossing re-enactment. Scouts can connect what they learn about our nation's history and government with service and citizenship. Ask Pack leadership about Liberty in Action.
